

Ted W. Cassman
CACJ President

Ted Cassman is a seasoned trial lawyer with more than two and a half decades of experience in state and federal courts as a private practitioner. He also has expertise in constitutional law and enjoys a thriving appellate practice. His cases run the spectrum from narcotics trafficking, sexual assault, murder and juvenile cases in state court, to federal cases involving money laundering, mail and wire fraud. He has argued before the California Supreme Court, and in 1987 he wrote the winning briefs in U.S. v. Merchant, a case before the United States Supreme Court.
